

I Am a Woman (Homosexuality)

The second in Ann Bannons legendary series, by date of publication, introduces us to the legendary Beebo Brinker. Laura, whod left college never to return in Odd Girl Out, finds herself fleeing the home shed shared with an overbearing (and abusive) father. Settling in the big city, Laura moves in with Marcia, a married divorcee and the object of Lauras affections. Along comes Jack, a girl man who guides Laura through the difficult early period, and finally Beebo herself, a woman known in al
