

K.D. Srivastavas Commentaries on Payment of Wages Act, 1936: with Supplement

The fifth edition of this work has been thoroughly revised, containing all statutory amendments and authoritative and up to date case-law. The author has provided a detailed section-wise commentary on the Act. The discussion is preceded by a synopsis facilitating quick and easy access to the relevant material. The latest amendments relating to each State have also been given, as also the State Amending Acts. Central Rules framed under the Act, Notifications, and State Rules have also been given. This publication has gained immense popularity because of its increasing and enhanced utility to all those concerned with labour laws. A must for all labour law practitioners, labour officers, trade unions, industry, the government and the judiciary.
