

Tiln & Other Plays (Talonplays)

Three short plays by Michael Cook: Tiln, Quiller and Thereses Creed. In Tiln, two old men are caught in a personal power struggle. Using a lighthouse setting, Cook explores the modern man's dilemma in an uncaring world. Cast of 2 men. In contrast, Quiller is a one-person play set in a Newfoundland outpost. In this play, Cook creates a portrait of an old man assessing his empty life. Cast of 1 man. Thereses Creed is similar to Quiller in that Cook again returns to the one-person format in an outpost setting, but here he explores the female role. Cast of 1 woman.
